

NYC Fire Alarm Code Lunch and Learn Seminar

What's the seminar about: This is a 2 _ hour seminar on the new 2008 NYC Code (which is based on the International Building Code), which was signed into law last year and became effective July of 2008.

Who's it for? This is a technical presentation that is designed for Engineers and Electrical Contractors that would like to understand how to design and install a fire alarm system based on the new codes. It also looks at how the new Local Law 33 code differs from the previous NYC Code.

The seminar covers all types of occupancies from Assembly spaces, to Businesses, to Schools, to Retail.

When is it? Friday, October 8th, 2010

On July 3, 2007, Mayor Michael R. Bloomberg signed Local Law 33/2007, creating the new NYC Construction Codes. The Construction Codes consist of Administrative Provisions, Building, Fuel Gas and Mechanical Codes. The New Construction Codes also incorporate the Plumbing Code, previously enacted under Local Law 99/2005.

FIRE AND SECURITY

Sponsors: The seminar is being sponsored by High Rise Fire and GE Security. High Rise Fire and Security is a New York City based corporation with extensive knowledge and experience in providing life safety systems throughout the tri-state area.

Corporate offices are located at 144 21st Street, Brooklyn, New York 11232 and can be reached by telephone at 718-369-3434, or by fax at 718-369-0375.

GE Security (GE (formerly Edwards System Technology) is NYC's largest manufacturer of fire alarm systems.

Who's Presenting? The seminar is be presented by Dana Ferrer a Fire Alarm veteran with 20 years of experience in Fire Alarm.

You MUST RSVP – IMPORTANT – ONLY 30 SEATS – RSVP immediately: You must reply to this invitation. The seminar location has very strict security and your name must be on their security list to enter the building. All we need is your contact information via an email. Your name will be added to a MS Outlook calendar event and an Outlook invitation will be emailed back to you. Please email your name, company name and address to:

Moses Ruiz mruiz@highrisefire.com

Agenda:

9:30 – 10:00 Registration

10:00 – 12:30– Seminar

Introduction	Brief history, when enacted and effective date, where to download codes, numbering system, which sections of NYC code affect Fire Alarm, definitions.
Occupancy Classes	Chapter 3 Occupancy Classifications. Comparison between new and old occupancy classifications
Chapter 9	Sprinkler (electrical only) requirements, Fire Alarm system requirements by Occupancy. Manual versus automatic. Cover all applications including the fire alarm requirements in apartment building and in high rise buildings
Miscellaneous	Atriums, Special Requirements for certain Applications
Chapter 9 Peripheral Requirements	Pull Stations, DUCT Detectors, Monitoring, Fire Command Station Requirements
Elevator Recall	Chapter 30 and Appendix K. NYC Elevator detection requirements
Appendix Q	Modifications to 2002 NFPA 72.
Mechanical Code MC606	DUCT Detection requirements in Mechanical Code.
CO Detection	NYC CO detection requirements

12:30– 1:00 – Lunch

Where:

Microsoft New York - 6th Floor
1290 Ave of the Americas
New York, NY 10104

Mass Transit Information:

Subway

A, C, or E line to 50th Street Station (Eight Avenue/Worldwide Plaza)

B, D, F, or V line to 47-50th Street, Rockefeller Plaza Station (Sixth Avenue)

N, R, or W line to 49th Street (Seventh Avenue)

1 or 9 line to 50th Street Station (Broadway)

Seminar Cost: Free. Lunch is also included.

Are you a NY State Professional Engineer? This seminar is worth 2.5 PDH Credit Hours for NY State PE's!

Questions? Contact us as follows:

Moses Ruiz
High Rise Fire and Security
7183693434
mruiz@highrisefire.com

Email or fax this portion of the document to:

mruiz@highrisefire.com

Fx: 7183690375

Fire Alarm Code Class Reservation

Company Name _____

Attendees: 1. _____

2. _____

3. _____